      - v. Last Place-Dr. Bonnie Myhers $35
      - vi. Queens-$500 for helping sell.
      - vii. Net profit $1,280 (conflicts with Treasurer's report

- Farmers Market Report
  - i. 2017 Market had 18 vendors (20 in 2016)
  - ii. Overall went well
  - iii. As per May 2017 meeting, not many Commercial Club members on the Farmers Market Committee
  - iv. The Commercial Club started it and now perhaps we can pass it on to another group.
  - v. Teri Fritz has a group of other volunteers that can take it.
  - vi. What capacity does the Commercial Club stay on as a sponsor? Can we be the Charter Sponsor, similar to how we are for the Boy/Cub Scouts? Teri would like to know how the transition and relationship will be by November so she can get planning for the 2018 Farmers Market season.
  - vii. The consensus seemed to be the Commercial Club is ok with another group taking it on and we will discuss at a later time in the next month at what capacity we are needed to be involved.

7. New Business

a. Christmas Parade-November 24th

- Jack Vold works with the city on this. He lines floats up. Could use some help selling 50/50 tickets
- We are looking for 3-4 volunteers to assist with lining up floats and selling 50/50 tickets.

b. Memberships

- New member Nancy Dewitz in attendance. She won the Facebook challenge from the Lake Martha Days Parade which included a free individual Commercial Club membership and free golf at the Golf outing. She is excited to be here.
- It was discussed about trying to get a welcoming packet going again. Possibly Osseo Buck$. Something to help welcome new people to town. Perhaps the people that were on the Farmers Market Committee can now work on something like that.

8. Next meeting: Monday, October 23rd 2017 6:30pm Global Finishing Solutions-Center for Excellence building. Brandon will be emailing a map of where to go.

9. Adjourn- Motioned by Lisa, Second by Naomi.
